

Surrealism

Juxtapose: placing something side by side, often for comparison or contrasting

Metamorphosis: to change into a different form, to transform

Scale changes: changing the relative size or proportion of an object

Dislocation of objects: to move out of place or displace

Levitation: to rise or float in the air, allegedly through some supernatural power

Reverse Natural Law: something going against nature (rock floating, fish flying)