

Jericho High School Junior Jennifer Zwilling Needs Your Help!

Jen, who founded the Tourette Syndrome Association Youth Ambassador Program with help from her sister Amanda and brother Eric, is a 2007 BRICK Award Winner! As a winner, Jen has been awarded $5000 which will be donated to the National Tourette Syndrome Youth Ambassador Program.

“BRICK Awards recognize and support social change-makers age 25 and under. The BRICK Awards honor young people making our world a better place” and have been dubbed “the Oscars of youth service awards.” –CNN

Now, we need your help!

Jen has the opportunity to win a GOLDEN BRICK AWARD which means that an additional $15,000 (a total of $20,000) will be donated to The TSA Youth Ambassador Program.

Here's your part....

Please encourage everyone you know to please log on to www.brickawards.com beginning March 1st and VOTE FOR JEN!!

Every vote really does count!

You will not be asked for a donation ...
just please

VOTE FOR JEN!!

Thank you,
Barbara Bauer, Principal
Jeffrey Ratner, Principal
Martin Weissman, Principal

